Description

DESCRIPTION A handsome George III bowfront mahogany wardrobe with beautifully figured oval panels and substantial proportions, dating from around 1800 and made in the manner of Gillows of Lancaster. The wardrobe features a finely detailed dentil-moulded cornice above a pair of ebony-strung panelled doors with striking oval figured mahogany panels. The doors open to reveal a generous hanging interior fitted with a later brass hanging rail, while the base incorporates two deep drawers providing useful additional storage. The elegant bowfront form, quality mahogany veneers and understated ebony stringing give the piece a refined architectural presence, making it equally suitable for a period home or a more contemporary interior. A substantial and practical Georgian wardrobe offering excellent storage with classic early nineteenth-century design. DIMENSIONS Height: 205 cm Width: 140 cm Depth: 57 cm CONDITION This wardrobe presents well and remains structurally sound, with the honest wear expected of a Georgian piece over 200 years old. The mahogany has developed an attractive deep colour and mellow patina, with marks, knocks and scratches consistent with age and use. The d...
