Description

Large Antique Still Life Oil Painting Dutch Flowers, Birds Nest & Butterfly Brief Description: This is a magnificent large Dutch-style Oil on Canvas Still Life Painting depicting an abundant floral arrangement overflowing from an elegant classical urn, accompanied by a charming bird's nest containing delicate blue eggs and a beautifully rendered butterfly. Painted during the mid-20th century by a talented follower of the celebrated Dutch Golden Age Old Master Jan van Huysum (1682–1749), the work successfully captures the richness, refinement, and extraordinary detail that made his compositions so highly prized. With its exceptional quality and masterful execution, the painting possesses all the character and visual appeal of an 18th-century Dutch masterpiece. Every flower has been meticulously painted with remarkable precision, while the harmonious palette and subtle play of light bring the composition vividly to life. The delightful inclusion of the bird's nest, eggs, and butterfly adds both charm and symbolism, echoing the finest traditions of Dutch still-life painting. The work is presented in a smart modern gilt frame that perfectly complements the composition a...
