Description

Summary: Item: Antique Victorian Stand Circa: 1860 Period: Victorian Provenance: England, UK Wood: Solid pitch pine Sloped top rotates 360 degrees Ring-turned column Gothic shaped pedestal base Solid in joint Gothic design Stunning colour & patination Excellent quality Original condition Very sturdy Free delivery to England, Wales & southern Scotland* 14-day free UK returns policy Description: This is a fine quality antique Victorian stand, of English origin, with a gothic design, constructed from solid pitch pine, ideal for use as a menu stand, book stand or lectern, circa 1860, in excellent original condition. Of Gothic design, it comprises a rotating sloped top, which features an up-stand at the base, which prevents books / menus from falling off the stand. The sloped top is decorated with a triangular dental moulded frieze. The sloped top can accommodate large books or a display menu in a restaurant. The antique Victorian lectern is supported by a substantial ring-turned column pedestal, terminating on reeded splayed legs, with an open quatrefoil-pierced Gothic Revival tripod base. The antique book stand has been cleaned and wax polished to a...
