Description

Beautiful Art Deco burr walnut single bed by the renowned English makers Waring & Gillow, retaining its elegant original proportions and striking figured walnut veneers throughout. A wonderful example of early 20th century British craftsmanship, featuring warm honey-toned burr walnut panels framed with contrasting banding and a classic stepped Art Deco silhouette. The bed has been carefully cleaned and polished, bringing out the depth and character of the walnut grain beautifully. A stylish and practical piece, ideal for both traditional and contemporary interiors. This listing is for one single bed only. Please note that a matching second bed is also available separately under a different listing. The final photographs show both beds together to demonstrate how beautifully they work as a pair. The beds may be purchased individually or combined as a matching set, subject to availability. The bed retains its original side rails / bed rails. There are no slats included; however, we can arrange for a custom-cut plywood base if required, designed to support a mattress comfortably. Matching pieces from the same Waring & Gillow bedroom suite are also available separately i...
