Description

Exceptional quality Art Deco burr walnut dressing table / vanity by Waring & Gillow (1930) Ltd, retaining its original maker's label. A beautifully designed and highly decorative piece featuring stunning burr walnut veneers throughout, elegant curved lines, and a large original oval mirror. The dressing table stands on a symmetrical pedestal base with six drawers offering generous storage space. This piece showcases the refined craftsmanship associated with Waring & Gillow, one of Britain's most respected furniture manufacturers of the early 20th century. The quality of construction, veneering and proportions are far superior to many standard Art Deco pieces of the period. The rich golden burr walnut grain is particularly striking in natural light, complemented by contrasting banding and original handles. A timeless and sophisticated statement piece suitable for both traditional and contemporary interiors. Condition Presented in good vintage condition with age-related character and signs of use consistent with age. Structurally solid and very decorative.
