Description

A stunningly beautiful Edwardian antique silver gilt caster. Made in London in 1910 by John Hall. The caster itself is in great condition with no damage or repairs, the original gilding has been worn on the high points and this adds to it's beauty. This two part caster has amazing Adam style swags and bows interspersed with intricate engraving. There are a crisp set of hallmarks on the body and on the rim of the top. This is a very collectable piece of Edwardian silver. Weight; 272 grams or 9ozst approximately. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
