Description

A wonderfully original Victorian oak jeweller's stool, the thick single-piece rough-sawn slab seat with exposed wedged through-tenons, raised on three hand-faceted splayed legs. Bearing the hand-carved artisan mark 'PALLETT' to the seat, the piece carries strong provenance directly from the 19th-century workshops of Birmingham's Jewellery Quarter. Its heavy surface scarring, historic marking and deep patination lend it immense physical character, turning a simple tripod utility into a compelling survival of British industrial heritage. Very good antique condition, displaying a deep authentic workshop patina, honest surface marks and natural timber shrinkage. Structurally solid, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1860. Dimensions Height: 48 cm Width: 45 cm Depth: 30 cm
