Description

Antique 20th century Arts and Crafts gateleg side table in oak, an unusual and beautifully crafted piece displaying the quality and individuality associated with the Arts and Crafts movement. Very well made and of the finest quality, it combines elegant design with excellent practicality, making it a highly desirable and increasingly rare find. The table features a distinctive gateleg action with a drop leaf to the rear, allowing the surface to be extended whenever additional space is required. Its beautifully shaped outline and unique design set it apart from more conventional examples, while the sturdy construction ensures it is as functional as it is attractive. Crafted from quality oak, the timber displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, highlighting the superb craftsmanship invested in its construction. The clean lines and thoughtful proportions are characteristic of the Arts and Crafts style, giving the table a timeless appeal that will complement a variety of interiors. Presented in good condition, this rare and characterful gateleg side table is a wonderful example of quality antique furniture. Equally suited for use as an occasional table...
