Description

An exceptional late-19th-century Victorian bedroom suite, comprising six coordinated pieces and displaying an extraordinarily complete decorative scheme throughout. The suite includes a monumental canopy bed, triple wardrobe, marble-topped washstand, mirrored dressing table, bedside pot cupboard and freestanding towel rail. Each piece is constructed in richly toned ebonised wood and decorated with fine contrasting inlay, geometric linework, classical urn motifs, delicate floral ornament and architectural spindle galleries. The imposing wardrobe is centred by a full-length mirrored door and flanked by two inlaid cupboard sections, providing generous storage while retaining remarkable visual balance. The dressing table offers extensive drawer space beneath a tall central mirror, complemented by elevated side drawers and smaller mirror plates. Particularly striking is the marble-topped washstand, fitted with three drawers, twin cupboards and a decorative tiled gallery featuring colourful botanical designs. The towering bed creates the greatest impact, with an architectural canopy, pleated peach-coloured drapery, upholstered headboard and richly inlaid footboard. Complete...
