Description

Heals 1920's Buttery Hutch Oak Triple Wardrobe – Labelled A high quality solid antique oak three door wardrobe by Heals of London around 1920, part of the Buttery Hutch range of bedroom furniture. A lovely clean example and still having the large Heals makers label inset into the inside of a wardrobe door. Splits up well for movement into three sections which are the single door pod, the double door pod and then the plinth. This Heals antique oak wardrobe has three long and well panelled doors with the Buttery Hutch range oak mould all the way around the front edge, complete with the organ quality chromed handles. Inside gives a variety of storage options with the original brass clothes hanging rail, the double brass shoe rail to the bottom and one section has the original lift out oak storage shelves. Stands on the original oak ball feet. In very good condition throughout and clean inside. Dimensions Height: 178cm (70.63") Width: 151cm (59.92") Depth: 55cm (21.83")
