

SA1227840

A Fine Powder-Blue Glazed
Porcelain Brush Holder, Bitong
China, Late 17th–Early 18th
Century Attributed to the
Kangxi Period

Price

GBP 12,000

| USD $16,238 | EUR 14,041

Item Reference: SA1227840

Date of manufacture: 17th Century

Dimensions

Height = 16 cm (6.3")

Width = 18 cm (7.1")

Description

A Fine Powder-Blue Glazed Porcelain Brush Holder, Bitong China, Late 17th–Early 18th Century (Attributed) Period: Qing Dynasty (1644–1911), Kangxi Period (1662–1722) Culture: China Medium: Porcelain with powder-blue glaze (chui qing, Jingdezhen ware) Dimensions: Height: 16 cm (approx. 6 1/4 in.) | Diameter: 18 cm (approx. 7 1/8 in.) Description & Technical Details Of classic stout cylindrical form, the exterior is enveloped in a rich, lustrous powder-blue glaze featuring a dense, variegated cobalt field with deep indigo and blackish micro-clusters resulting from traditional blown-glaze kiln dynamics. The upper interior margin reveals a crisp white border accented by fine fringe cobalt speckling from the bamboo-tube application process. The unglazed base displays clean concentric throwing rings and a neat recessed central medallion enclosing a finely hand-written six-character underglaze blue Kangxi reign mark (Da Qing Kangxi Nian Zhi). Condition Report Object: Powder-Blue Glazed Porcelain Brush Holder (Bitong) Overall Condition: Very good / Pristine gallery condition Glaze Surface: The rich chui qing (blown-blue) powder-blue glaze is exceptionally well-preserve...

Seller Details

Sandbanks Antiques

Sandbanks Poole Dorset United Kingdom By appointment only in Poole or London.

Tel: 07889 139677

International Tel: +44 7889 139677