Description

An elegant mahogany serpentine chest on chest of exceptional quality, retaining a wonderfully rich colour and finely figured mahogany throughout. The upper section comprises four graduating drawers over a brushing slide, with a further three long graduated drawers below, all fitted with original brass swan neck handles. The chest is beautifully detailed with a pierced fretwork gallery, carved blind fret moulding, decorative canted corners and stands on elegant shaped bracket feet. The brushing slide is lined in green baize, making it ideal as a writing or dressing surface. A superb example with excellent proportions, outstanding craftsmanship and generous storage, presented in remarkably well-preserved condition. Item Reference: M-S027 . Dimensions: Height – 174.5cm / Width – 89cm / Depth – 53cm . CONDITION REPORT: Presented in very good condition with only minor age-related wear. Small historic chips and losses to the upper moulding, as shown in the photographs. Drawers run well, the brushing slide operates smoothly, and the piece is structurally sound. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is ...
