Description

A wonderful small antique Edwardian arts and crafts oak lectern or reading stand dating from circa 1910, which would make fantastic music stand or hall table. It has super colour and patina to the solid oak and is of traditional pegged construction in the Arts and Crafts style. The sloped top sits above stile sides with arched shaped feet. There is a book shelf beneath the top with a stretcher below which is pegged on the outside. Solid and sturdy and in good condition it Would make a great stand for sheet music or would work well as a hall table without taking up too much space. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Good condition, solid and sturdy. Good colour and original patina. Various marks and wear commensurate with age. It has some wear to the feet where it has been stood on a damp/cold church floor. Dimensions: Top Width: 38cm Top Depth: 30cm Max Height: 77cm Base Width: 43cm Base Depth: 26cm
