Description

Antique 19th century Victorian breakfast table in rosewood, a beautifully proportioned piece that combines elegant design with exceptional decorative appeal. Very well made and of good quality, this handsome table is a fine example of Victorian furniture, offering both practicality and timeless style. Its elegant oval top and impressive carved base make it a striking centrepiece for any period or traditional interior. The table features a classic tilt-top mechanism, allowing the top to be raised when not in use, making it both practical and easy to accommodate within a room. It is supported by a beautifully carved tripod base, displaying fine detailing throughout, and stands on its original castors, allowing it to be moved with ease while retaining its authentic character. The rosewood displays stunning natural figuring, gorgeous grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, giving the table tremendous depth and visual appeal. The combination of the beautifully figured top, intricately carved base and elegant proportions makes this a particularly desirable example that truly has to be seen in person to be fully appreciated. Presented in good condition, this exceptional Vic...
