Description

A very good Queen Anne style flame mahogany display cabinet by Maple & Co. of London. Dating from the early 20th century and well constructed in solid mahogany with attractive flame mahogany veneers. With a domed top surmounted by a carved crest. With a pair of glazed doors (lockable, key supplied) which open to access a shelved display space. Underneath are a pair of drawers with original brass handles. All standing on carved cabriole legs with a carved apron. Sympathetically repolished in our workshops to a very high standard. Now offered for sale in excellent condition with a lovely colour, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 91cms Depth 44cms Height 179cms Internal shelf depth 32cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their luxury furniture entirel...
