Description

Newlyn Copper Fish Visiting Card Tray c.1900 – Stamped NEWLYN | Arts & Crafts Cornish Copper Tray Price: £210.00 Authentic Newlyn Copper Visiting Card Tray Depicting Fish – Circa 1900 A superb antique Newlyn Copper visiting card tray, dating to circa 1900, and clearly stamped “NEWLYN”. This finely crafted Arts & Crafts Cornish copper tray features a beautifully hand-worked fish motif, a classic maritime design associated with the renowned Newlyn School of Metalworkers in Cornwall. Produced during the golden age of the Newlyn Industrial Classes, this decorative copper tray exemplifies the exceptional hand-hammered craftsmanship and naturalistic coastal imagery for which Newlyn metalwork is internationally celebrated. Originally intended as a visiting card tray, it also makes an elegant desk accessory, jewellery tray, catchall dish, or collector’s display piece. The rich copper patina and expertly repoussé fish decoration make this an outstanding example of Edwardian Arts & Crafts metalwork and a highly desirable addition to any collection of Newlyn Copper, Cornish antiques, or British Arts & Crafts decorative arts.
