Description

Beautiful Art Deco Czech perfume bottle dating from the 1930s. Features a clear cut glass bottle with original stopper with jet black enamel decoration with exquisite acid etched detailing. The bottle and stopper have a fabulous geometric shape and this is accentuated by the enamel decoration. This is a wonderful piece and an impressive size. These size bottles are very hard to come by. Offered with no damage at all, no chips or scratches and little to no wear to the enamelling. There is some very minor surface marks to the base which is to be expected. This is the perfect find that will be an asset to any collection or to gift to an Art Deco admirer. The etched decoration is also in excellent condition.
