Description

A superb quality Victorian burr walnut credenza of elegant proportions, showcasing exceptional craftsmanship and beautifully figured timbers throughout. Raised upon a plinth base, this impressive cabinet features three arched glazed doors, allowing the interior to be displayed while providing practical storage. The doors are finely decorated with striking kingwood crossbanding and are flanked by elegant half columns, each adorned with finely cast ormolu mounts, adding richness and refinement to the overall design. The shaped top displays wonderfully figured burr walnut veneers, highlighting the natural beauty and warmth of the timber. Both decorative and functional, this fine Victorian credenza would make an outstanding addition to a period drawing room, dining room, library, or entrance hall. Presented in good condition, this elegant antique cabinet is ready to grace the finest of interiors.
