Description

Antique Minton Parian Figure Group 'Naomi and Her Daughters-in-Law' – Circa 1865 A beautiful and highly collectible Minton Parian porcelain figure group, dating to circa 1865, depicting the biblical figures Naomi with her daughters-in-law Ruth and Orpah. The elegant composition portrays Naomi standing centrally, offering comfort to the two women at her side, with the title "Naomi and Her Daughters-in-Law" finely incised on the front of the base. Produced by the renowned Minton factory of Stoke-on-Trent, this finely modeled Parian group reflects the exceptional quality and artistry for which the company became internationally celebrated during the Victorian period. Minton porcelain was highly prized by collectors and royalty alike, including Queen Victoria, and remains among the most sought-after names in English ceramics. Dimensions: Height: 34.0 cm (13.5 inches) Width: 25.0 cm (10 inches) Depth: 19.0 cm (7.75 inches) An impressive Victorian Parian sculpture, ideal for collectors of Minton porcelain, biblical subjects, and fine 19th-century English ceramics. Number and arrow impressed marks to the base. Offered in great condition.
