Description

A CHINTZ PALAMPORE SOUTH EAST INDIA, COROMANDEL COAST, 19TH CENTURY FOR THE SRI LANKAN MARKET. The cotton ground printed and painted with a central tree with monkeys, exotic birds probably peacocks, an owl, mongoose, monkey with a human face, butterflies a shiva lingam shrine and with a repeat broad border of flowering shrubs and monkeys. There has been some sympathetic repairs to each edge/border, imaged both sides and rear of it. May possibly want a wash/clean. Very colourful and interesting one for anyone with an interest in the arts of india as a study piece and they make for great wall hangings/display or use as its original purpose as a bed cover. 18th century examples can fetch 5 figure sums when they come up for auction if you can find them. Free world posting at asking price of £ item sold GBP. SIZE IS 8 FOOT 7 INCHES BY 6 FOOT 8 INCHES. 262CM X 203CM. Many floor coverings/rugs stocked from restored pieces to country house/distressed and everything in between.
