Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian wardrobe in walnut, a handsome and beautifully proportioned piece that combines elegant period styling with excellent practicality. Very well made and of good quality, this attractive wardrobe offers generous storage while showcasing the timeless appeal of Edwardian furniture. The wardrobe features a large bevelled mirror door to the front, opening to reveal a spacious hanging interior, ideal for storing clothing and garments. Beneath is a generously sized drawer, retaining its original handles and fittings, providing additional storage for linens or everyday essentials. Subtle carved decoration to the front enhances the elegant appearance of the wardrobe without detracting from the beauty of the timber. The walnut displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, giving the piece plenty of depth and character. Its attractive proportions, quality construction and understated detailing make this a particularly desirable example that would complement both period and contemporary interiors. Presented in good condition, this is a very nice example of an Edwardian wardrobe, offering both style and practicality. Please note that ...
