Description

A fantastic pair of novelty silver pepper pots in the form of little grotesque creatures. Fully hallmarked to each component for Frederick Brasted, London, 1880. The upper section screw threads to the lower; both threads open and close nicely as they should. Each pepper pot is surprisingly weighty. Some very light signs of wear commensurate with age but overall both remain in an excellent condition throughout. Lovely things. Dimensions:- Height: 5.5cm Width: 2.5cm Combined weight: 80 grams.
