Description

An amazing Edwardian mahogany sign written perfumery cabinet complete with a large collection of vintage Yardley products c.1910. The shallow proportioned solid mahogany cabinet with moulded cornice to the top, glazed hinged door to the front and apron foot to the base. The front of the cabinet sign written to the reverse of the glass with advertising in gilt and black hand painted script promoting Gardiner & Lacey colognes, spa waters, oil of limes and Yardley Lavender waters along with the Norwich pharmacies address. The hinged door secured by two polished brass catches, the door opening to access the glass shelved interior, which has seven quarter plate bevelled edge glass shelves that can be set at different heights. The cabinet is supplied complete with a fascinating collection of vintage Yardley products of various ages including soaps, perfumes, talcum powders and skin care products; many unused and in original wrappers. Also included are various Yardley promotional pieces including jars dishes and a soap holding figurine group. Presented in excellent condition with a rich colour and patina to the cabinet.
