Description

DESCRIPTION This is an elegant George II figured walnut chest on chest, dating from the mid-18th century and displaying attractive figured walnut veneers throughout. The moulded cornice sits above an upper section fitted with three short and three long oak-lined drawers, over a lower section with three further long drawers. The drawer fronts are decorated with fine line inlay forming elegant intersecting curves, together with crossbanding and featherbanding, and the chest stands on shaped bracket feet. The attractive walnut veneers and refined inlaid decoration give the piece a sophisticated appearance, while the well-balanced proportions make it equally suitable for a period or contemporary interior. The drawers are oak lined, reflecting the quality of its original construction. A handsome and practical mid-18th century chest on chest offering generous storage and excellent decorative appeal. DIMENSIONS Height: 177cm Width: 107cm Depth: 54cm CONDITION There are the expected light marks, knocks and surface wear associated with age and use. There are historic patch repairs to the veneers and mouldings, together with a small number of old woodworm holes. The bottom right-...
