Description

French Louis XVI style Commode à Pointe de Diamant (Diamond-Point Commode) French Gustavian Style Chest of Drawers French Antique Gustavian Blue 'Pointe de Diamant' Commode A Classic Neoclassical Statement Circa 1880 - 1910 Rescued from a country house in Hampshire and beautifully restyled, this magnificent French antique commode brings timeless Neoclassical elegance into any space with its refined silhouette and charming character. It features a soft, textured Gustavian slate blue finish, hand-distressed to create an authentic, time-worn patina. The painted base contrasts beautifully with a stripped-back, natural raw timber top, creating a perfect balance between rustic warmth and French sophistication. Key Features & Details Intricate Architectural Carvings: Flanked by vertical fluted corner columns topped with carved pointe de diamant(diamond-point) motifs, adding striking architectural structure to the piece. Original Hardware: Fitted with its original ornate brass drop handles (poignées à pendant) and decorative key escutcheons that highlight its period origins. Natural Timber Top: Features a smooth, stripped-back wood top with rich natural grain that grounds...
