Description

DESCRIPTION A substantial and attractive George III oak and mahogany crossbanded chest of drawers dating from around 1800, with strongly figured oak drawer fronts, rich colour and pleasing proportions. A practical size with generous storage, it would work particularly well in a bedroom, hallway or living space. The moulded rectangular top sits above two short and three graduated long drawers, with figured oak fronts framed by contrasting mahogany crossbanding. The drawers are fitted with brass swan-neck handles and the chest stands on shaped bracket feet. DIMENSIONS Height: 108 cm Width: 102 cm Depth: 53 cm CONDITION The chest is in good, solid and usable condition, with a rich colour and attractive figuring to the oak. The drawers run well and the joints are stable. There are marks, knocks, scratches and areas of wear commensurate with age and use. There are some historic repairs, patches and losses to the veneers and crossbanding, including a replaced section on the top left drawer, and staining around the locks where different escutcheons were previously fitted. The brass swan-neck handles are later replacements. These historic repairs remain visible and form part of...
