Description

A superb antique pop up drinks table by Waring & Gillow, the highly regarded English furniture makers and antique dealers established in 1897. An exceptionally stylish and ingenious piece, combining elegant design with a clever concealed drinks cabinet mechanism. Presented in very good showroom condition, the table features a distinctive split-hinged top, which opens to reveal a beautifully fitted interior that rises smoothly into position with a soft-close rise-and-fall action. The fitted interior is complete with four tumbler glasses and twelve shot glasses, ready for entertaining. The original Waring & Gillow brass maker's plaque is retained inside, stamped: "Waring & Gillow, Oxford St. London. W. Pats. 1631.5466". The table is finished on all sides, allowing it to stand freely within a room rather than against a wall. It is raised on elegant tapering square-section legs, each terminating in brass-mounted castors. A particularly desirable and highly decorative example of Waring & Gillow's innovative furniture, offering a wonderful combination of craftsmanship, functionality and theatrical surprise. An excellent statement piece for a drawing room, study, bar or enter...
