Description

An extremely rare early Regency (circa 1800) mahogany breakfast table or centre table of fine, faded patina. This table consists of a circular mahogany top of fine, figured and faded patina, the top can be either tilted or secured down. The base consists of a formed demi-lune support with applied turned mouldings leading down to a stepped concave plinth support with applied turned mouldings and paterae to the corners of the lower plinth, all supported by four moulded splay legs with original brass hairy paw feet with castors below. Please note: the chairs have been used of photographic purposes only and are not included in the price. This table is in very good original condition for age, is of stable construction and can go straight into a home – this table can be used as a centre table, breakfast table, dining table etc. and can seat six. Size: Height: 28.5" / 72.5cm Width: 50.75" / 129cm Depth: 50.75" / 129cm
