Description

Antique 19th century large oak court cupboard by Maple & Co, an exceptional and increasingly rare piece that showcases the outstanding quality and design for which the renowned maker is celebrated. Very well made and of good quality, this impressive cupboard combines superb craftsmanship with an abundance of practical storage, making it a magnificent focal point for any period or traditional interior. The upper section is fitted with two spacious cupboards, each enclosing a single shelf, providing excellent storage for china, glassware or decorative items. Beneath are a further three cupboards. The left-hand cupboard contains a single shelf, the central cupboard is fitted with two shelves, and the right-hand cupboard has been thoughtfully designed with integrated bottle storage and a practical sliding drawer, demonstrating the exceptional attention to detail invested in this piece. The cupboard separates into two sections, making transportation and installation considerably easier. Beautifully carved throughout, the cabinet displays the refined workmanship expected of Maple & Co. The oak boasts gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour, while the substantial propor...
