Description

A very early and absolutely gorgeous pair of antique Georgian period mahogany wine tables. They were made in England, we would date them from around the 1790's period. They are of superb quality, solid mahogany throughout, and are a very useful size. They are perfect for resting drinks and objects, they are petite and easy to move around. The circular tops have slightly lipped edges, they stand on tripod bases, and are sturdy and sound. We have had them recently re-polished, the condition is excellent for their age. They retain a beautiful and deep patina, with various small old marks and bumps remaining beneath the polish. One of the legs has a historical repair near the end of the foot, seen in the images and barely noticeable. Width base – 18 inches , 46 cm Width top – 12 inches , 30 cm Height – 20 inches , 50 cm
