Description

Fabulous 1930s Art Deco heavily figured walnut bureau in the most wonderful shape. Not only does this great bureau look great its very functional too. The top opens up to reveal everything you need to rest a laptop or write a letter (does anyone do that nowadays?!). Sectional areas to store letters and general paper work with working key, below are two generous sized drawers which retain their original chrome bar handles. An excellent piece of furniture and in great condition having been professionally fully re-polished and restored. The resting area is lined in leather, this comes with a working key so you can lock the top. A great piece of furniture if space is an issue and a charming focal point to any room. All drawers open smoothly and without effort. This piece definitely won't disappoint.
