Description

A fine Irish carved rosewood centre table, showcasing the distinctive craftsmanship and decorative character associated with Irish furniture of the period. The table stands upon elegantly shaped legs united by a turned stretcher, with turned uprights, all displaying wonderfully executed and typically Irish carved decoration. The impressive shaped top is constructed from beautifully figured rosewood, showcasing the rich grain and warm tones of the timber. The top is further enhanced by a substantial double moulded edge, incorporating further fine Irish carving and adding to the table's strong decorative presence. A particularly attractive and characterful piece of Irish furniture, presented in good condition.
