Description

A fine Victorian mahogany cylinder desk of impressive proportions and exceptional character. The desk stands upon a substantial plinth base, incorporating two panelled doors beautifully veneered in richly figured flame mahogany, showcasing the wonderful natural grain of the timber. The doors are flanked by elegant pillars, each surmounted by finely carved corbels, adding further architectural detail and decorative appeal. The cylinder opens to reveal a fitted interior, comprising a pull-out leather-lined writing surface, an arrangement of pigeon holes and a selection of useful fitted drawers, providing excellent storage and a practical workspace. A highly attractive and well-presented Victorian desk, combining fine craftsmanship, beautifully figured mahogany and considerable practicality. Presented in good condition.
