Description

Presented in exceptional showroom condition, this impressive Victorian chest of drawers is a particularly handsome and unusual example, crafted in beautiful mahogany with a superb polished finish. The chest features an unusual drawer configuration, with three long graduated drawers arranged beneath a series of five smaller upper drawers, offering excellent storage and strong visual symmetry. The drawers are fitted with attractive turned mahogany handles and run smoothly. A particularly distinctive feature is the deep bottom drawer incorporated into the plinth base, a highly practical design detail that adds both storage and architectural interest. Standing on a substantial plinth base with rounded feet and beautifully proportioned moulded detailing. A fine-quality Victorian chest with unusual design, excellent proportions and outstanding presentation. W 104cm (41") D 48cm (19") H 102.5cm (40.25")
