Description

Antique 19th century Victorian dressing table in pitch pine, a beautifully crafted piece that combines practicality with classic Victorian elegance. Very well made and of good quality, it offers generous storage and an attractive layout, making it a charming addition to a bedroom or dressing room. The upper section is fitted with a beautiful mirror, beneath which sits a useful single drawer retaining its original decorative brass handle. Below are two further drawers, also complete with their original decorative brass handles, providing ample space for toiletries, jewellery and everyday essentials. An open shelf at the base offers additional storage or display space, while the table is raised on elegantly turned legs that give it a balanced and graceful appearance. Crafted from beautifully matured pitch pine, the timber displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour throughout. The honest simplicity of the design allows the quality of the wood and the excellent craftsmanship to shine through, resulting in a piece with plenty of character and enduring appeal. Presented in good condition, this highly desirable Victorian dressing table is both decorative and funct...
