Description

A handsome pair of antique oak wainscot armchairs of substantial proportions, each with a high rectangular panelled back beneath an attractive carved cresting with stylised scroll and foliate decoration. The broad shaped arms terminate in tightly scrolled hand grips and are supported by well-turned front balusters. The plank seats retain a deep, rich colour and attractive grain, while the chairs stand on turned front legs united by square stretchers, with plain rear legs continuing into the back uprights. Well-balanced in design, they display the restrained architectural form associated with traditional wainscot furniture. A decorative and well-matched pair with good colour and patina throughout. Item Reference: M-6996 . Dimensions: Height – 119cm/ Width - 59cm/ Depth - 50cm / Seat Height - 48cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition, structurally solid and sound. There are some age-related shrinkage splits are present, as expected with pieces of this age, but these are stable and do not affect the integrity of the chairs. Evidence of historic woodworm is present, long inactive, and the chairs have been treated as a precaution. General surface wear, marks and kno...
