Description

P0123 A stunning William IV rosewood work and jewellery box, dating to circa 1840. This exceptional piece features elegant quadrant beading alongside fine decorative inlays on both the front and the hinged top. The lid opens to reveal a beautifully and newly relined interior, complete with a practical lift-out tray. The box stands elegantly on original bun feet, now fitted with protective felt pads. Sympathetically restored and in condition, this timeless antique is completely home-ready. c1840 H6.5" W11.5" D9" H16cm W29cm D23cm
