Description

Antique 19th century Victorian writing table in mahogany, a beautifully proportioned piece that perfectly balances elegance with practicality. Very well made and of good quality, this desirable writing table showcases the refined craftsmanship and timeless styling associated with the Victorian period. The table is fitted with two useful front drawers, each having decorative brass handles, providing convenient storage for stationery, documents and everyday essentials. A raised gallery surrounds the rear and sides of the top, adding both visual appeal and a practical feature to keep books, papers or decorative items neatly in place. Raised on finely turned legs, the table has a graceful yet sturdy stance that enhances its classic design. Crafted from quality mahogany, the timber displays gorgeous natural grain, beautiful figuring and a rich, warm colour throughout. The attractive proportions, solid construction and understated elegance allow the beauty of the timber to take centre stage, resulting in a piece with enduring character and charm. Presented in good condition, this highly desirable Victorian writing table is a timeless example of 19th century furniture. Combinin...
