Description

Vintage Double Strand Pearl Necklace with Diamond 9ct White Gold Clasp, London 1962 A fabulous and exceptionally substantial vintage double strand cultured pearl necklace, featuring beautifully large 9–9.5mm pearls and an ornate diamond and pearl floral clasp crafted in 9ct white gold. Dating from 1962, this impressive necklace is formed from two long strands of generously sized cultured pearls. The pearls have a beautiful silver-ivory colour with a subtle pink overtone and deep, lustrous sheen. Their unusually large size gives the necklace wonderful presence, while the double-strand design creates a particularly luxurious appearance when worn. Weighing an impressive 150 grams, this is a remarkably substantial pearl necklace. The weight and generous 9–9.5mm pearls give it a feeling of quality that is immediately apparent when handled and worn. The centrepiece is the beautiful 22mm floral cluster clasp, fashioned in 9ct white gold and decorated with pearls and sparkling diamonds. Rather than being merely functional, the clasp is an attractive jewel in its own right and can be worn either traditionally at the back or brought around to the front or side as a decorative f...
