Description

An excellent antique free-standing oak and brass coat/hat/stick hallstand, circa 1880 in date. The upper part is centred by an urn finial above a rotating platform with five brass coat hooks, on three reeded curved supports with a brass umbrella rail above a circular drip pan base. It was part of the contents of Greenside Church, Edinburgh, until its recent deconsecration. It is a stylish yet very practical item which would look lovely in any hall. Condition: In excellent original, untouched condition; please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 210 cm x Width 66 cm x Depth 66 cm. Dimensions in inches: Height 6 foot, 11 inches x Width 2 foot, 2 inches x Depth 2 foot, 2 inches. Oak is a tree or shrub in the genus Quercus - Latin for "oak tree" having approximately 600 extant species. Oak wood has a density of about 0.75 g/cm³, great strength and hardness, and is very resistant to insect and fungal attack because of its high tannin content. It also has very appealing grain markings, particularly when quartersawn. Oak wood is very durable, easy to maintain and resistant to wear and tear, which is why it can be easily handed to future generations if ta...
