Description

An oak coffer in the 17th century style, with a richly detailed panelled front. The front is arranged with two large geometric moulded panels flanking a smaller central panel, decorated with applied split turnings and ebonised inset details. Further moulded decoration runs beneath the hinged plank top. The coffer opens to a spacious interior and stands on stile feet with shaped openings to the sides. Constructed from oak with a warm, dark colour and considerable character throughout. Item Reference: M-6972 . Dimensions: Height – 70cm/ Width - 128cm/ Depth - 42cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition with wear, marks, old repairs and losses commensurate with age and use. Some losses and wear to mouldings and edges, but overall structurally solid and sound. Solid and usable overall. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home.
