Description

A 19th-century etching by Robert W. Macbeth (1848–1910), depicting a tranquil rural scene outside an inn, with villagers, a working horse, and a soft pastoral landscape beyond. Macbeth's fine linework and warm tonal shading capture the quiet rhythm of countryside life. Signed in the lower right and presented in a period frame, it's a charming example of Victorian pastoral etching. Robert W. Macbeth was a British painter and etcher, part of a distinguished artistic family that included his father Norman Macbeth and brother James Macbeth. Internal Reference: SAI4255
