Description

An impressive antique George V sterling silver inkstand which has a heavy plain base with recesses to house the ink bottles and rests on four decorative claw feet. There is an attractive pierced gallery which surrounds the base and completes the design of this lovely piece. The cut glass bottles with pretty silver mounts fit comfortable within the recesses of the inkstand. This silver inkstand would look appealing when displayed on a table or desk and would be practical to use. It remains in excellent condition. Height: 13.5 cms (5.3") Length of base: 34 cms (13.3") Width of base: 23.4 cms (9.2") Height of each ink bottle: 9.5 cms (3.7") Width of each ink bottle: 6.8 cms (2.7") Weight (without the ink bottles): 38.5 troy ounces (1,200 grams) It was hallmarked in Sheffield for 1912 by Walker & Hall. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this silver inkstand. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact us.
