Description

This Antique trombone link chain measures 16 inches in length and features a double dog clip fastening. It is crafted from 9ct gold and showcases trombone links with a bright rose-gold hue, along with a T-bar drop. This is a rare example of a sought-after trombone link chain, fully hallmarked, dating to Birmingham, 1921. It would make a great addition to any collection. METAL 9ct Gold MEASUREMENTS Measures 16" in length - Could be extended with the extra links hanging down Chain measures 6.56mm across T-bar measures 3.8cm Dog clips measure 2.1cm x 0.7cm WEIGHT 36.04 grams HALLMARKS Links - 9, 375 Central trombone link - J.K Link ring - Birmingham, Date letter W (1921) Both Dog Clips - J.K, 9, 375 T-bar - J.K, 9, 375 CONDITION This antique chain is in excellent condition, showing only light wear consistent with its age. All components are original and matching. The dog clips function well, although one is slightly stiff, so it needs pushing to close shut. All in all, a super rare length and would make a fantastic addition to your antique jewellery collection. Item Number - 11594
