Description

English, Circa 1750 This concertina action card table has all four of its legs carved with a stylised acanthus leaves terminating into scrolls to the left and right of the top of the leaves. Opened up the table reveals a perfectly square playing surface lined with a blue tooled antique linen. This well drawn table has aged down over the years to a soft and mellow patina, the simplicity of its design and the outstanding colour throughout do really set this table apart as a rare survival of Georgian furniture. Condition Report In great condition, untouched colour and crisp carving. Dimensions Width 84 cm (33 1/2") Height 73 cm (28 3/4") Depth 42 cm (16 1/2") (Open 84 cm, 33 1/2")
