Description

English, Circa 1830 In the manner of Charles Heathcote Tatham. The seat framed and panelled over a reeded frieze and supported by reeded legs headed by carved paterae. This window seat or bench is remarkable due to its size, at nearly five and a half feet long. It has also survived in a remarkable state of preservation, retaining a gloriously untouched colour and patina. Dimensions Width 165 cm (65") Height 53.5 cm (21") Depth 43cm (17")
