

SA1229409

George III Giltwood Arm Chair - Thomas Chippendale c.1770

Price

GBP 900

| USD $1,218 | EUR 1,053

Item Reference: SA1229409Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Description

Newly upholstered in a spring green pure silk from the Gainsborough Silk Weaving Company (thickly woven from an original 18th century fabric pattern) and with double piped and button back original detailing. . With anthemion and ribbon carving to the arms, fluted tapered legs with leafy terminals and lovely tied ribbon cartouche to the back, all indicative of a high quality 18th century maker and with some decorative elements in the manner of Thomas Chippendale. Photographs showing the complete and original frame prior to re-upholstery are available on request. . A beautiful and elegant chair, solid, comfortable and usable. Some light wear to the gilt, tiny nibbles and minor restorations consistent with a chair of this age which has been very well cared for all of its life. . No weakness in any joints, no significant repairs, a very fine armchair with beautiful oval overstuffed seat on ribbon carved rails. . . Dimensions are: . Height is 38 inches, max width is 27 inches and depth is 26 inches. . Height from floor to top of seat is 17 inches. Height from floor to top of arms is 25 inches . Width between the arms is 23 inches and depth of seat is 19 inches. . For metric pl...

Seller Details

Webberley Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07765 233266

International Tel: +44 7765 233266