

SA1229415

Solid Silver Russian Judaica Spice Shaker 1894

Price

GBP 440

| USD $594 | EUR 515

Item Reference: SA1229415Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A good and rarely found hallmarked Russian silver spice tower, the bowl surmounted by the Star of David centred by a red semi precious stone cabouchon set in a silver collar and with original and well fitting clasp in excellent working condition. The bowl supported by two figures, one playing an accordion and the other a Shofar horn, standing on a circular engraved base with flattened bun feet. . The spice shaker stands level and firm and is stamped with the maker's mark (KII); the initials (AA) over the year made 1894 (AA - stands for Assa Apollonovich Artsybashev) the 84 stands for the Russian silver proof (the standard is .875). . The condition appears very clean and bright without damage or repairs. . The globe opens and closes with the catch working smoothly. . . Dimensions are: . The spice tower is approx. 3 1/2" and weighs 47.2 g.

Seller Details

Webberley Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07765 233266

International Tel: +44 7765 233266