Description

Antique 20th century small breakfront sideboard in burr walnut, an exceptional piece of cabinet making, beautifully crafted and of the finest quality. Compact in size yet offering an abundance of storage, this elegant sideboard is a rare find, making it ideal for those seeking a statement piece without requiring a large amount of space. The breakfront design is both attractive and practical, with a cupboard at either end, each surmounted by a single drawer. The left and right-hand cupboards provide useful storage, with the right-hand cupboard retaining a single internal shelf, while four central drawers offer generous space for cutlery, linens or everyday essentials. Every drawer retains its original decorative brass handles, and the cabinet stands proudly on traditional bracket feet, giving it a refined and balanced appearance. The burr walnut is simply breathtaking, displaying magnificent figuring and a wonderfully rich, warm colour throughout. Beautiful crossbanding frames the top, adding another level of sophistication to an already impressive piece. The quality of the veneers and the standard of craftsmanship are outstanding, and it truly has to be seen in person to...
