Description

Set of 8 Victorian Stamped Mahogany Balloon Back Dining Chairs. A Fine Set of Eight Restored Victorian Mahogany Dining Chairs with J.B. C&W Maker's Mark. A fine set of eight Victorian mahogany balloon-back dining chairs, dating to circa 1860. Crafted from quality mahogany with a warm, golden-amber tone, this set has been fully restored in our workshop and is ready for use. Each chair features the classic mid-Victorian swept balloon-back design with a rounded top rail and curved waist. The frames have crisp, turned front legs and elegantly splayed rear sabre legs, with simple molded detailing running along the side seat rails. All eight chairs bear the same impressed maker's mark, 'J.B. C&W', directly on the seat rails. The suite consists of an original set of six alongside a matching pair ordered from the same maker at a slightly later date—a common Victorian practice as a family's dining table grew. Because both batches were made in the same workshop using identical templates, the exterior proportions, back profiles, and leg turnings match seamlessly. Subtle historical differences—such as variations in the internal joinery, minor construction changes to the back frame...
